What We Offer

Local Chapters

The lifeblood of the Caucus, chapters serve as "incubators" for new ideas, strategies, leaders, liturgies. Members address local needs, enjoy a multi-cultural community and are connected to the Body of Christ and God's world.

RUACH

A lively newsletter, published quarterly.

Legislative Watch

Prior to, in the midst of and after General Conventions, the EWC is the only organization consistently monitoring legislation to create a better future for women and children.

The Caucus Brunch

Where the politically savvy meet and eat on the Sunday of General Convention.

Our Annual Gathering

Members and friends come together to worship, work, stimulate, share and have fun.

Consultation

Strategizing, organizing to work within and around church structures on current concerns.
